

STITCHER'S NEWS

August 2023

Ladies,

We're beginning to feel and see hints that Fall is around the corner—are you working on a Fall project? I've started piecing a pumpkin quilt pattern from Cluck Cluck Sew.

The Quilted Postcard class was a lot of fun and Deb Bradley did a great job inspiring us to create our little works of art.

Our next small project will be "I Found a Quilted Heart" - this is such a great idea and a fun, anonymous way to make someone's day. Wait for more information to come (scheduled class has been cancelled).

Mark your calendars for the two important sew dates in October and don't forget our annual Fundraiser Auction will be Monday, October 16. Have you made a donation to the Auction yet? Be sure to invite your sewing buddies for a great night of bargains and fundraising?
