

STITCHER'S NEWS

FEBRUARY 2024

Ladies,

We had a great meeting in February celebrating the Community Service work you all do. Our guests were so appreciative of the donations we make and they left with their trunks full of more! You can see from Tammy McClure's report that we've been a busy group.

Are you a cross stitcher? Have you been one in the past? You will not want to miss the March 18 meeting! Our guest speakers will inspire you to pick up that Aida 14 fabric or maybe even linen and your DMC floss and get back on the cross stitch wagon.

The April 15 meeting promises to help us all be better prepared when we get our quilt projects ready for the longarm quilter. Watch for more information in next month's newsletter.

Happy Spring,
Sherry Byrd
President

March 18 Program

The program for March brings Lorraine Stallings and Bonnie Barron, both incredible cross stitchers, to share a trunk show and tips/tricks for the art of cross stitch. Lorraine is an associate at Tiny Stitches and has a YouTube channel (ragstostitchesUSA). Bonnie Barron worked years ago at the Needle Nook in East Cobb and has continued her love of cross stitch on linen. The Guild will be providing small cross stitch kits to everyone in attendance ($5 fee for non-members attending the meeting.) Join us for a great night of stitching!

How'd you like to earn your PhD?

This year's challenge is to finish those Projects Half Done (PhD). Decide on 5 projects you want to complete by December 6 and complete a sign up sheet listing the projects. You can work at your own pace to complete the projects as long as they are completed and ready for Show n Tell at our December 7 Holiday Party. Everyone that participates will receive one of many great prizes. You must complete a sign up sheet to be eligible for the December 7 Show n Tell and prizes. Sign up sheets were handed out at the January meeting and will be available on the Membership page of the website, and at the March meeting.

April 15 Program

April Meeting we will have Longarm Quilters for the members to ask questions "How do I do ???." The Longarmers will give us what they like and taking in a quilt to quilt for you. Get your questions ready!
