

September 2025 Meeting Minutes

Silver Comet Stitchers 9/15/2025

- Meeting called to order by Guild Member Julie Cribb who announced that Sherry Byrd, Rose Walter, Robin Banks and non-active guild members Joy Wegand and Pat Yearwood were at the North Georgia State Fairgrounds representing the Guild judging quilts. Recognition was given to those who entered a quilt in the fair and the judging procedures were explained.
- August minutes approved. Motion to approve made by Sharon Maddox, seconded by Leigh Wright.
- Attendance: 26 Members and 2 guests (Erica ? and Andrea ?)
- Treasurer's report given by Christine at end of meeting: $11, 285.93.
- Membership: 59 paid members; seventy-one members are on record. Pam Gooden mentioned that post cards are available to send members who have missed a few meetings. The password for the webpage will change and only paid members will be able to access the Members Tab.
- Membership cards will be issued next month.
- Sunshine: Tammy McClure was not present, but Julie Cribb reminded those present to let the committee know if there are any members under the weather or in need of a bit of sunshine so they can be sent a card.
- Community Service: Phyllis shared that there are available placemats, pillowcases and quilt kits to be constructed. Rose Walter has backing available for quilt top; she will be adding that to the quilt kits. Members can contact her if you need any for charity quilts.
- Ways and Means: Patsy King share the items to be raffled later tonight. Kelly Harbin offered a personal review about "Retroclean" one of the items in a raffle bundle.
- Hospitality: Shannon Tankersly thanked everyone for bringing goodies and said all is going well with everyone contributing food items.
- Announcements: Leigh Wright shared that October's meeting will be Game Night. A member shared that Anna Miller had a beautiful baby boy by c-section on 9/11.
- Members shared beautiful quilt items during show and tell.
- A break was taken to give members opportunity to get raffle tickets before the Color Theory presentation by Kelly Harbin.
- Julie Cribb introduced Kelly Harbin who gave a wonderful presentation on Color Theory.
- The meeting was adjourned and members shopped until it was time to leave.