

Silver Comet Stitchers

December 15, 2025 Meeting Minutes

- The Silver Comet Stitcher's Annual Christmas Party/Meeting began with President Sherry Byrd welcoming the guild to Burnt Hickory Baptist Church.
- Members were encouraged to vote for their favorite table design and instructions were given for members to partake of the fabulous potluck.
- After eating the meeting/party continued

Old Business

- There will be no January Meeting as the Senior Center will be closed.
- Phyllis Betton shared that 20 more pillow cases needed to be made and materials were available. Leigh Wright volunteered to take them all.
- January 5th will be a Sew Day at the Senior Center; bring your own project.
- Rose Walter availed an opportunity for those who had not yet done so a chance to collect their crayons and instructions for the June challenge
- The 2026 Quilt Retreat will be March 16 - 20. The related form is on the website for those interested to print and sign.
- Christine DiMartino did not have the treasury balance available.

New Business

- Leigh Wright announced the table winner, Table Number 2, Vintage Christmas.
- Bank of America is giving Silver Comet Stitchers a grant of $1,000 in two $500 installments
- $75 is the cost to use the room at Burnt Hickory Baptist Church; a bill will follow.
- Many beautiful quilts, bags, pillow cases and a onesie were shared during Show n' Tell.
- Door Prizes were awarded and # 7 was the popular winning number winning three of the six times. (Table 1 - #3, Table 2 - #7, Table 3 - #7, Table 4 - # 6, Table 5 - #7, Table 6 - #5)
- Sherry asked members to share their holiday plans. Maine, Arkansas and Alabama were a few of the travel locations mentioned.
- The meeting was prematurely ended then President Sherry Byrd invited members to take a gift from the guild from the front table as they gathered their things to leave.
- Merry Christmas to ALL.