Stitcher's News

JUNE 2026

In recent news...

The crayon challenge was a huge success! Thank you to everyone who participated. I hope you all enjoyed the food, fellowship, and amazing show and tell we enjoyed at the guild picnic this month!

The 2025-2026 guild year has been an amazing one filled with fun events and engaging speakers! Thank you so much to our outgoing board members for all you have done for this guild! We are all excited for this new chapter and cannot wait for another wonderful year with Silver Comet Stitchers Quilt Guild!

Community Service

Please reach out to Phyllis Betton if you would like to help with community service! Looking for volunteers to help with all aspects of receiving, preparing, and delivering donations.

Coming soon!

On July 20th we will be visited by Amanda Bauer to discuss "We've come a long way stitchers: The Vintage Art of English Paper Piecing"

The fat quarter for July is Christmas. Bring a fat quarter to be entered into the drawing to win the whole lot!

Guild Sew Days are the first Monday of each month at the Senior Center from 9am-4pm. See Facebook to sign up. (Next Sew Day July 6th)

In August we will be joined by one of our own members, Rena Blain, for her lecture "Getting back your sewjo with organization"

She is also offering a class. See FB for details.

Sunshine

Please contact Tammy McClure if you know of a Guild member that needs a little sunshine!
